The Winston Golf Club

The Winston Golf Club, formerly The Calgary Elks Lodge & Golf Club, is a semi-private club conveniently located just minutes from downtown Calgary at the junction of Deerfoot Trail and 16th Avenue North (QE2 and Trans Canada highways). With Nose Creek flowing between the front and back nine,

The Winston is a city-center oasis of water, mature trees, greens, and gardens.

First opened to the public as the Regal in 1923, the golf course has matured over ninety years to become one of the finest in the area. The course has seen many changes in its day including a major re-design completed in 1992 by renowned golf architect Les Furber.
